“The Great Book Swap is a GREAT idea. It was so amazing to see so many kids SO excited about exchanging books that they’d read and loved. Not only does it encourage reading but it raises funds for kids in remote communities who don’t have access to books. Everyone wins.”

ANDY GRIFFITHS, ILF ambassador

Register Your School for INDIGENOUS LITERACY DAY
Wednesday 5 September 2012

Register your school now. Go to: http://www.indigenousliteracyfoundation.org.au/Register/

Register by 31 May and your school will go in the draw to win a visit from an ILF Ambassador on ILD

Join schools across Australia. Hold a GREAT BOOK SWAP on Indigenous Literacy Day 5 September, during Children’s Book Week (18-24 Aug) or National Literacy & Numeracy Week (27 Aug – 2 Sept) or at any time during National Year of Reading, but be sure to register.

With your support the Indigenous Literacy Foundation can send books & literacy resources to more than 200 remote Indigenous communities, fund specific literacy projects identified by communities and run Book Buzz, an early literacy project.

For more details visit www.indigenousliteracyfoundation.org.au & get your school pack.

‘When I saw what was being given free of charge to our college and how suitable the reading material was I almost wept with joy at the kindness of the Indigenous Literacy Foundation. Our College is very poorly resourced so these books are very useful.’
